

JUNK DEALERS

1. No person shall do business as a dealer in junk (hereinafter referred to as a junk dealer) without first having taken out a license therefor, which shall be granted by the Council and signed by the Mayor and Clerk, and shall be in force until the first day of March next succeeding, and no longer.

2. The fee for every such license so issued or renewed shall be Fifteen Dollars.

3. No junk dealer shall do business as a pawnbroker without having taken out a special license therefor.

4. Every junk dealer shall do business at some place within the Town, and the place at which he proposes to do business shall be specified in the license.

5. A separate license shall be required for every place at which any person proposes to do business as a junk dealer.

6. No person licensed to do business as a junk dealer shall remove his place of business from the place designated in his license without having first obtained the permission of the Council, and such change shall be endorsed upon his license by the Clerk.

7. No junk dealer shall purchase in the way of his business any article from any minor under the age of eighteen years.

8. No junk dealer shall purchase in the way of his business any article whatever from any person whomsoever between the hours of six o'clock in the afternoon and seven o'clock in the forenoon.

9. All rags, old rope and other combustible or inflammable material shall be kept isolated and apart from other articles, and every precaution taken to prevent the risk of fire in the same.

10. Every junk dealer shall on demand of the Chief of Police or any officer, exhibit to him any article on his premises.

11. Every junk dealer shall keep in each place in which he does business a book in the form following, that is to say:—

Date.

Time Received.

Number of Follo.

Amount Paid.

Description of Articles and Description Marks.

Name and Address of Party Selling.

Description of Person Selling.

Age.

Height.

Complexion.

Beard, Shape and Color.

Dress.

By Whom Purchased.

Address.

Date.

In which shall be fairly written at the time of the purchase of any article in the way of business, an accurate account and description of the article so purchased, including any distinctive mark thereon, the price paid therefor, and the precise time of making such purchase, and the name, residence and description of the person from whom such purchase was made, and such book shall at all times be open to the inspection of the Chief of Police or any other police officer.

12. Immediately after the sale of any article by any dealer he shall make an entry in the book mentioned in the next preceding paragraph opposite to the entries therein of the purchase of such articles, showing the name, residence and description of the person to whom the same was sold, and the price and date of sale.

13. Every person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provisions of this Ordinance shall for each such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Dollars ($50.00) and in default of payment to imprisonment for a period not exceeding One Month, and for a second conviction for any such offence (not necessarily the same) shall forfeit his license and shall not be granted a renewal of the same for one year thereafter.