

POLICE

1. The Police Office shall be in the Court House, or such other place as the Council by resolution appoints for the purpose.

2. The Chief of Police shall:—

(a) be responsible for the peace, quiet and good order of the Town, and on all occasions aid in the preservation thereof, and in the observance of all laws;

(b) have under his direction and control the other Police Officers and such extra and special constables as are from time to time appointed;

(c) be responsible for the patrolling of the streets of the Town at all times;

(d) when the proper performance of his duties will permit, render such assistance to the Clerk in the delivery of notices and other documents, and in the collection of taxes, or otherwise as the Clerk requires;

(e) when the proper performance of his duties will permit, report at the Town Office each day (Sunday excepted) at the hour of eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

3. The Chief of Police shall on each day enter in a book to be kept for such purpose in the Police Office—

(a) the hours of commencing and leaving duty;

(b) the duties performed during the day;

(c) All complaints made to him; and

(d) any suggestions that he considers of service in the public interest.

4. The Committee on Police and License may, subject to the approval of the Council, from time to time, make, amend, or repeal rules for the regulations of the Chief of Police, Police Officers and extra and special Constables.
