Mayor's Message

Happy new year. 2025 marked the first full year for your current town council and I am pleased to tell you Stellarton enjoyed a year of forward and steady progress. I have thoroughly enjoyed working with council while getting to know our dedicated and skilled town staff.

Challenges Overcome: Summer of 2025 was exceptionally hot and dry. Through the course of water restrictions and burn bans, Stellarton residents – and indeed residents across Pictou County – proved responsive and worked together to navigate. Well done and thank you.

Renewed Infrastructure: We completed a number of noteworthy projects. Of particular note, was Rutherford Street. This significant update included replacements to some of Stellarton's oldest remaining water, sewer and storm lines. I wish to thank our residents for their patience throughout this project.

Business Development: We welcomed new businesses both downtown and in the Albion Business Park. New to our downtown in 2025 are the following: Dina's Fish & Chips, House 47 Restaurant and Wine Bar, St. Barbara Limited (mining), Endless Love Bridal & Prom Consignment Boutique, Lemon Nails, and the re-opened Blue Lobster Public House. Meanwhile in our Albion Business Park, Carstar (auto body repair) commenced operations in its newly constructed location on Lawrence Boulevard and the RCMP broke ground nearby in constructing its new net zero carbon Pictou County district detachment.

During 2025 we sold two additional business lots and repurchased a lot for resale. Our businesses are dear to the continued growth and vibrance of Stellarton. Current council continues to actively explore ways to develop opportunities and maximize benefits from available resources.

Deer Population in Town: We have made meaningful progress including coordinated discussions with our neighbouring towns. In November, we concluded a survey among residents that will help to inform Council during its review and deliberation as to next steps during 2026.

Water Metering: Town staff will be engaging with the Nova Scotia Regulatory and Appeals Board early in 2026 to begin a water rate study. There is much effort required to ensure metering data is accurate. We anticipate going live with meter-based billing during 2026 and will follow with further detail as a measurable timeline is developed.

I continue to be honoured to be your mayor and remain committed to helping foster better connection and continued growth across our community.

Yours Truly,
Darren
